1. Enter your full legal name. This name should match the name on your official identification.
2. Enter the name you wish to use for your notary public commission. You may use one initial for the first or middle name, but not for both. The commission name shall be a part of your name, but not a nickname or shortened version of your legal name. No single initials without a full first or middle name are permitted.
3. Enter your complete mailing and residence addresses. The mailing address can be a P. O. Box, however, if your residence address is different from your mailing address, enter your residence address in the space allowed. The residence address must show a physical location with a street number and name.
4. Enter your business phone with area code including your extension, if applicable. Enter your home phone with area code. Enter your fax number with area code.
5. If you are not a citizen of the United States, attach a copy of your Permanent Resident card (Form I-551) issued to all Permanent Residents as evidence of alien registration and permanent status in the U.S.
6. Enter your Social Security number. Only the last four digits are required, however, providing the full Social Security number is recommended.
7. Enter your complete e-mail address clearly and legibly. This should be updated as needed by e-mail to our office at notary@sosnc.com.
8. Enter the month, day and year of your birth and check the appropriate box if you have a high school diploma or the equivalent.
9. Enter your county of residence. If you are a North Carolina resident, this is the county where you will be commissioned.
10. Enter your occupation (i.e., bank teller, paralegal, attorney, realtor, etc.) If you are unemployed, retired, a student, or self-employed, check the appropriate box. Enter your employer's name. Enter your employment address including city, state and zip code and the county of your principal employment. If you are not a North Carolina resident but your principal employment is in North Carolina, you must send proof of employment statement from your employer on company letterhead to be commissioned in the county of your employment.
11. You must complete the required six-hour notary public education course to be commissioned as a notary in North Carolina. Enter the name of the community college where you took the course, the name of your instructor, and the date that you completed the course. Initial applicants must have your instructor sign and date your application. Initial applicants are required to pass a written examination approved by the Secretary with a score of 80% or better.
12. If you are an attorney licensed to practice law in North Carolina, check yes. (N. C. Licensed attorneys, although exempt, are strongly encouraged to take the notary course. Attorneys are required to possess the most current notary guidebook.)
13. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 10B-5 requires that you purchase and keep the most recent edition of the N.C. Notary Public Guidebook. The Notary Public Guidebook for North Carolina may be purchased from the School of Government, UNC Chapel Hill, through their website at www.sog.unc.edu. Please visit the School of Government's website, email sales@sog.unc.edu, or call (919) 966-4119 for information about the latest edition.
14. If you answered "Yes" to this question, send a certified copy of your criminal record background check from the Clerk of Courts office, judgment and probation release letter, if applicable, from each county where a violation occurred including the county in which you currently reside. Submit a signed written explanation with this application, including the following information: the date and place of arrest or violation, the name of court and court case number, the code section of the violation, a brief description of the offense, and the sentence imposed. Include the date you were released from probation, parole, or incarceration and for felony charges, send a copy of your citizenship restoration. Minor traffic offenses such as speeding are not applicable to this question unless it resulted in misdemeanor or felony charge. To be considered for commission as a notary public, you are required to submit three (3) completed Certificates of Moral Character (obtained from our website at www.sosnc.com) from three individuals (i.e., your employer, minister, or another person, other than a family member) who can each provide a statement as to why these charges should not prevent you from being appointed as a notary. Your application will be denied if you answered "Yes" to this question and fail to provide the information listed above.
15. If you answered "Yes" to this question, attach written details on the type of license or commission, the name under which it was issued, the date and reason of the revocation, denial, suspension, restriction, or resignation, and the name and address of the licensing agency.
16. Complete the applicant's declaration by printing the name you will be commissioned as (same as line #2). Do not sign until you are in the presence of a Notary.
17. The final step before submitting your application to the Department is to have a notary public, other than yourself administer an oath or affirmation to you to confirm that the information provided in the application is true. DO NOT NOTARIZE YOUR OWN SIGNATURE.
