

SAVE THE DATE

The Honorable Carol Allen White

CLERK OF SUPERIOR COURT EDGECOMBE COUNTY & STAFF

15th BIENNIAL COMMUNITY FORUM

“COME BE EMPOWERED – FAMILY MATTERS”

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 2015

Location:

Edgecombe County Administration Building Auditorium

201 St Andrew Street in Tarboro, NC.

Registration 9:00 a.m. - 9:30 a.m.

No cost to the public

Provides the opportunity to help the citizens understand the court process and how the court system works.

Topics include:

When a love one dies...now what do I do? Understanding the important process of Estate Planning/Wills Clinic, Understanding the need for important documents such as Power of Attorneys, Advance Health Care Directives, Understanding the process of Foreclosures and Foreclosures Prevention and Resources, Understanding what to do if you are a victim of Domestic Violence, Understanding how to help support a family member or a friend of domestic violence, Mental Health – what sign do we look for? Understanding Tenant and Landlord rights – Summary Ejectment, Understanding the process of one facing a sentence, their family and friends, sentenced by a judge, from courtroom to prison, your first time in prison, until re-integration, a Second Chance – Reentry – helping former persons with an unfavorable background and former persons after incarceration return to communities.

For more information

Kimberly H. Harrell at 252-824-3231 Kimberly.H.Harrell@nccourts.org or

Carolyn McAuley at 252-824-3254 Carolyn.T.McAuley@nccourts.org

Disclaimer: By North Carolina General Statute, the Clerk of Superior Court serves as the judge of probate. She and her staff are prohibited from practicing law; therefore, you should contact an attorney for specific advice regarding your legal rights. The clerk nor her staff are not allowed to prepare your accounts or to advise you on the completion of forms or any legal issue.